The Dover Town Forest trail and backcountry Touring network is made possible through a partnership between the Dover Town Forest Conservation Commision, the Town of Dover, The USFS and SoVTA. There are currently four backcountry touring zones:

Baby Town Frolic:
Is a open low angle zone good for low snow and beginners.

Chutes & Ladders:
Has tight chutes and open areas that gets steeper the lower you go.

Grandma's:
Is a short moderate zone that provides a connection to the Chicken Little zone Via the Andy's Way Skin track.

Chicken Little:
Is a zone that good for advanced riders and skiers that has many steep sections with numerous log rides and boulders.
